Peruse along the walkable stretch of West 5th Avenue and your group will find home décor stores and consignment shops offering something for everyone.

AFFORDABLE LUXURIES

Begin your scouting for clothing, jewelry, household items and more at Tri-Village Trading Post 1. Grandview Heights' first resale shop tucked away next to First Community Church at 1944 West 1st Ave., grab a copy of an Affordable Luxuries map before departing to West 5th Ave.

Arriving at the walkable stretch of West 5th Ave., a great first stop is Alternative Resale Shop 2. This resale clothing store offers a variety of styles from casual to formal for women, men, and teens. Nearby Second Chance Consignment Boutique 3 offers 4000 square feet of upscale brand name clothing, handbags, jewelry and shoes, all within season and on trend.

Focused on decorating for your home? Fresco Furnishings 4 carries furniture for every room of your house and in any style from antique to modern.

The One More Time 5 family of stores offers clothing and accessories for both women and men, while furniture and home goods can be found at One More Time etc. 6.

Wrap up your shopping at the 22,000 sq. ft. Grandview Mercantile 7, which offers hundreds of treasures and merchandise. With 150 parking spaces, their location offers easy bus dropoff and pickup if traveling with a group.

Wrap up your shopping excursion by dining in the northern part of Grandview Ave. Lunch options include:

Sweet Carrot

Made-from-scratch comfort foods served up in an inventive way.

Aab India
